

CURRICULUM VITAE

Colleen Heath Daniel, Psy.D.
30320 Rancho Viejo Road, Ste. 102
San Juan Capistrano, CA 92675
(949)481-8414
drcolleendaniel@gmail.com

Education

Psy.D., Clinical Psychology

Pepperdine University

American Psychological Association-accredited program

M.A., Clinical Psychology, Emphasis in Marriage and Family Therapy

Pepperdine University

B.S., Psychology

Northern Arizona University

Licensure and Certifications

California Licensed Psychologist, PSY23849

Certified Clinical Trauma Professional, International Association of Trauma Professionals

State of Texas Provisionally Licensed Psychologist

National Register of Health Service Psychologist

Scholarly and Professional Membership

American Psychological Association

Orange County Psychological Association

International Association of Trauma Professionals

Clinical Experience

Coastal Neuropsychological Specialists (2016-present)

Pediatric and Adult Neuropsychologist

San Juan Capistrano, California

Neuropsychological, cognitive, psychological, and psychoeducational assessment of children, adults, and geriatrics; individual, couples, and family psychotherapy and counseling; pre-surgical bariatric evaluations; pre-surgical evaluations for spinal chord neurostimulator patients consultation and liason.

QTC/Lockheed-Martin (2012-present)

Clinical and Forensic Psychologist

Diamond Bar, California

Assessment of adults, children, infants, and adolescents to determine eligibility for Social Security Disability benefits. Includes psychological evaluations, assessments of effort, cognitive abilities, psychological functioning, neuropsychological functioning.

MSLA (2012-2014)

Clinical and Forensic Psychologist

Los Angeles, California

Assessment of adults, children, infants, and adolescents to determine eligibility for Social Security Disability benefits and Veteran's Administration benefits. Includes psychological evaluations, assessments of effort, cognitive abilities, psychological functioning, neuropsychological functioning.

The Buehler Institute (2011-2012)

Clinical Psychologist

Newport Beach, California

Provided individual and couples psychotherapy and sex therapy to address client issues associated with sexuality and sexual functioning.

Medpro, Inc. (2011-2014)

Clinical and Forensic Psychologist

Van Nuys, California

Assessment of adults, children, infants, and adolescents to determine eligibility for Social Security Disability benefits. Includes psychological evaluations, assessments of effort, cognitive abilities, psychological functioning, neuropsychological functioning.

Fullerton Neuropsychological Services (2010-2011)

Clinical Psychologist/Clinical Neuropsychologist

Fullerton, California

Provided individual and marital therapy with adults, children, adolescents and older adults; neuropsychological assessment; personality assessment; consultation to in patient and out patient rehabilitation departments; consultation with skilled nursing facilities and assisted living facilities; pre-surgical bariatric evaluations; pre-surgical evaluations for spinal cord neurostimulator patients; mental capacity evaluations; supervision of psychological assistants.

Fullerton Neuropsychological Services/St. Jude's Medical Center (2008-2010)

Post-Doctoral Fellowship in Neuropsychology & Rehabilitation Psychology

Fullerton, California

Duties included neuropsychological assessment and consultation to in patient and out patient rehabilitation departments; individual and family psychotherapy with brain injury, cancer, spinal cord, and geriatric patients; psychotherapy, neuropsychological assessment and consultation with skilled nursing facilities and assisted living facilities; pre-surgical bariatric evaluations; pre-surgical evaluations for neurostimulator patients; conducting research; and providing community education.

San Bernardino County Department of Behavioral Health (2007-2008)

A.P.A. Accredited Psychology Internship

Rialto, California

Duties as an intern included providing individual, group, and family therapy to chronically mentally ill consumers in an outpatient setting; conducting psychological, cognitive, and neuropsychological assessments with consumers; providing supervision to practicum students and interns of other mental health disciplines; providing partial hospitalization care, crisis intervention, case management, and mental health rehabilitation; conducting research within the Department to assess current training and supervision needs.

Children's Hospital at Orange County (2006-2007)

Department of Pediatric Psychology

Practicum Extern

Orange, California

This assessment rotation focused on neuropsychological and psychological testing with out patients. Duties included conducting comprehensive neuropsychological evaluations with children, adolescents, and young adults to determine functional status; provided remedial recommendations and intervention; selected, administered, scored, and interpreted assessment batteries; participated in trainings with interns, and received both group and individual supervision each week.

Little Company of Mary Hospital Rehabilitation Center (2005-2006)

Practicum Extern

San Pedro, California

Duties included administering neuropsychological, cognitive, and psychological assessments to in patients and out patients of the Rehabilitation Center, psychiatric facility, skilled nursing facility, and chemical dependency facility associated with the hospital; utilizing information obtained through assessments and clinical interviews to develop and implement treatment plans for patients; providing individual and family therapy; assisted treatment team with developing and implementing discharge plans for patients; and developed and implemented a training manual for practicum students.

Pepperdine University Community Counseling Center (2005-2007)

Practicum Extern

Irvine, California

Provided individual, family, and couples' psychotherapy to clients of the Counseling Center on a weekly basis. Administered cognitive and psychological assessments as needed.

Pepperdine University Community Counseling Center at Union Rescue Mission (2004-2005)

Practicum Extern

Los Angeles, California

Provided individual psychological services to clients of the Union Rescue Mission, a treatment facility and homeless shelter for drug abusers and the homeless population of Los Angeles' Skid Row district. Individual psychotherapy, group psychotherapy, and psychological assessment were provided to clients on a weekly basis. Group and individual supervision were provided, along with assessment training and supervision.

Outreach Concern (2003- 2004)

Practicum Extern

Placentia, California

Provided individual and family psychotherapy to elementary school children and their families; developed treatment plans in conjunction with school faculty, educational psychologists, and clients' parents to address clients' needs and difficulties. Ongoing training was provided regarding specific childhood disorders, interventions, and family issues.

Pepperdine University Community Counseling Center (2003-2004)

Graduate Assistant

Irvine, California

Provided intake assessments for potential clients of the Counseling Center; coordinated schedules of Counseling Center therapists and interns; served as front-office staff; assisted the Director of the Marriage and Family Therapy program as needed.

ValueOptions (2001- 2002)

Clinical Case Manager

Phoenix, Arizona

Coordinated out-patient services for the seriously mentally ill population; assisted clients with housing, vocational, medical, and legal referrals; provided individual counseling and intensive case management; facilitated both voluntary and involuntary hospitalizations; performed psychosocial assessments as needed; conducted home visits and community outreach.

Academic Experience

Director of Clinical Training (2015-2016)

Argosy University-Orange County Department of Counseling Psychology

Master's in Counseling Psychology and Ed.D in Counseling Psychology Programs

Managed the clinical training department for the counseling psychology programs; assured compliance with state and university regulations regarding licensure and practicum experiences; coordinated practicum placement for masters' and doctoral level student therapists; resolved disciplinary and ethical concerns voiced by training sites; developed and maintained department budget; maintained collaborative relationships with training sites and site directors through contact, site visits, and involvement in county level training colloquium meetings; advised students and instructors regarding state and board regulations towards licensure; served as chair for the Training Committee.

Interim Department Chair (2014-2015)

Department of Counseling Psychology

Argosy University-Orange County

Master's in Counseling Psychology and Ed.D in Counseling Psychology Programs

MACP and EdDCP representative for School of Behavioral Health Curriculum Committee; served on Appeals Committee, Student Professional Development Committee. Dissertation advisor and committee member; coordinated trainings and workshops for counseling students and alumni; hired and managed adjunct faculty; student advisory and mentorship; schedule coordination.

Assistant Professor (2014-2016)

Department of Counseling Psychology Argosy University-Orange County

Master's in Counseling Psychology and Ed.D in Counseling Psychology Programs

Courses taught: PC6104: Counseling Skills I; PC 6105: Counseling Skills II; PC6005: Maladaptive Behavior and Psychopathology; Practicum I, II, III.

Adjunct Professor (2007-2014)

Department of Counseling Psychology Argosy University-Orange County

Courses taught: PC6440: Child and Adolescent Counseling; PC6025: Human Growth and Development; PC6300: Ethical and Professional Issues; PC6240: Introduction to Psychological Assessment; PC6320: Domestic Violence and Spousal Abuse Practicum I, II, III

Research, Editorial Work, and Publications

Contributing Editor (2015-present)

The Practitioner Scholar: Journal of Counseling and Professional Psychology

Shafranske, E., Falender, C., & Daniel, C., 2009

Personal Factors and Countertransference in Clinical Supervision: Towards Evidence-Based Practice.

Symposium presentation for the 2009 American Psychological Association Annual Convention.

Daniel, C., & Arthur, K., 2008

Comfort and Likelihood of Disclosure: A Survey of Pre-licensed Clinicians.

Unpublished research conducted for San Bernardino Department of Behavioral Health.

Daniel, C., 2008

The Relationship Between the Supervisory Alliance and Disclosure Among Psychology Interns.

Unpublished Doctoral Dissertation. Chaired by Edward Shafranske, Ph.D.